STUDENT LIFE

Academics, music, sports, and ministry are all aspects of student life; but once the whirlwind of classes, concerts, games, and events end students must unwind! From Orientation to Airband, and dances to Sibling's weekend, QU students know the ropes of fun and relaxation.

To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life.

Robert Louis Stevenson

ORIENTATION

To the right: The Purple Color Group attempts to stay upright as they stack themselves higher and higher for an Orientation activity that requires teamwork.

Above: The Orientation team starts preparing early for the new arrivals. The group becomes very close knit, which adds to the fun of Orientation for the incoming Freshmen. Members of the team are (4th row L/R) Stephen Rak, John Wietholder, Alana Jordan, Meghan Prindiville, Robert Cook, Dennis Wagner, Chuck Davis; (3rd row L/R) Eric Klinner, Natalie Jones, Oscar Garcia, Ryan Schumacher, Raggin Powers, Kate Dauksch, Melissa Holdren, Erika Oetker; (2nd Row L/R) Rob Falbo, Amy Kluba, Linda Meyer, Ryan Jansen, Jill Bergmann, Linton Myers; (1st row L/R) Angela Bartels, Bernadette Goebel, Jessica Weiss, Leila Salem, Jennifer Richardson, and Dawn Burns.

To the right: The Orientation team had the color groups participate in community activities. Members of the Teal Color group have fun painting window casings for their community project.

Below and to the right: D. J. Flores, Amy Kluba, and Antonio Cruz have fun cleaning up the environment for their Orientation community service activity.

Below: The Orange Color Group attempts to laugh their way into the finalists. It's not as easy as it looks!

CONVOCATION

Associate Professor of Psychology
Dennis Campbell, 1999 Excellence in Teaching Award Recipient, welcomed the new students in his convocation address.

Below:
Dr. Donna Bohn, Assistant Professor of Music, introduces new students to the fun side of Quincy University by playing the mirimba.

Above: Student Senate President, Dominique Zewde, expresses her delight that there are so many new faces, and informs the new students how important they are to the QU community.

Directly Above: F a t h e r
Kole greets the new students, encourages them to feel at home, and welcomes them into the close-knit QU family.

To the left: After such inspirational speakers,
the students and professors are ready to make their way into the new school year. Convocation ends with flagbearers, Tim Sheely and Megan Calloni, leading out of the chapel.

MOTHERS'

Above: Gulia Tune and mom share breakfast, which neither prepared.

Right: Cindy Martin, as FBI undercover agent Sarah, attacks a mobster lawyer played by Seth Gruenwold in a student written play.

Above: The audience loves Frank Caliendo, who keeps them rolling with laughter at his constant change in characters.

Above: Frank & Clare's offered a nice retreat complete with good food and good company to welcome fathers to QU.

To the left: Caliendo realizes he has already been paid and decides to improve his Kermit the Frog impressions.

Below: Casino Night! Too little time, too little money. The tables definitely turned the weekend when fathers started borrowing and spending their children's money.

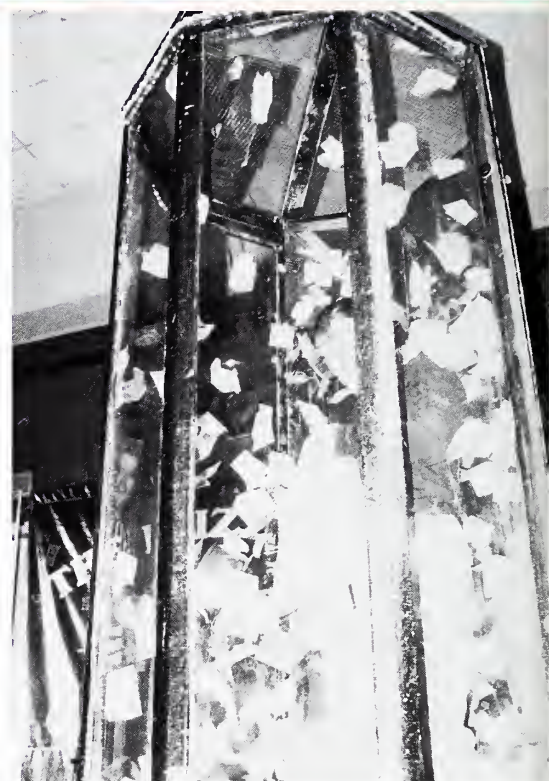

SIBLINGS

Siblings' Weekend, which occurred January 28-30, was organized by Interhall, the Student Programming Board, and the Office of Student Affairs. Blizzard of Bucks was the highlight of Friday night's program, offering the audience the opportunity to win up to $500. Saturday's events ranged from face painting, clowns, and comedian Rick Kelley. Limbo, the electric slide, and a chance to watch Vice-President of Student Affairs Greg Warren wear sunglasses and sing "Under the Boardwalk" made the weekend a great success.

Above: Jade entertains parents, alumni, and students with their singing talent.

To the right: Comedy Sportz performer, Mike Wilks, tries to convey the idea of a goat without words. He succeeds in making the crowd laugh, but he doesn't look like a goat.

Above: "Quincy Univeristy, the school for your ...bags?" question Zach Lorton and Tim Lord of Comedy Sportz. Maybe they should say boys?

Below: "It's a Great Day to be a Hawk!" isn't just a saying, it's a way of life.

Above: The girls soccer team propels themselves further down the field.

PEOPLE

Quincy University cannot stand on academics alone! Together as individuals, we help gather the people of campus into a community, which makes our experiences and our long-lasting Franciscan tradition a part of our lasting mark on the university and our lives.

So long as we love we serve; so long as we are loved by others, I would almost say that we are indispensable; and no man is useless while he has a friend.

Robert Louis Stevenson

Seniors

"I wanted a perfect ending... Now I've learned, the hard way, that some poems don't rhyme, and some stories don't have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Life is about not knowing; having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next.

Delicious ambiguity."

ATHLETICS

Athletics brings another avenue to the students of the university, allowing friendly competition, determination, and a sense of well-being to those who play, and even those who cheer faithfully on the sidelines. The ability, skills, and talent of each athlete has contributed to the QU tradition. The long hours of practice and endless drills have all paid off, earning each athlete and team the pride of serving our university and themselves.

Victory is often a thing deferred, and rarely at the summit of courage....What is at the summit of courage, I think, is freedom. That freedom that comes with the knowledge that no earthly thing can break you.

Alpha Delta Gamma is a group of men whose lifestyles are enriched by a common set of ideals, goals, and realistic purposes. The brothers of ADG strive to fulfill the Five S's that they live by: service, scholastic, spiritual, school-spirit, and social. Every year Alpha Delta Gamma hosts different events to raise money for the Ronald McDonald House, which helps many children and their families. The ADG brotherhood is an extremely close knit group of men. The brothers respect and value each other's opinions and lifestyles.

Mission Statement

Alpha Omicron Pi is an international women's fraternity promoting friendship for a lifetime, inspiring academic excellence and lifelong learning, and developing leadership skills through service to the fraternity and community.

The Epsilon Sigma Chapter was colonized on March 20, 1999, and holds true to this mission statement. The chapter strives to contribute generously to its philanthropy--arthritis research--through activities such as Trick-or-Treat for Arthritis, the Nora Baldner Golf Classic, the Jingle Bell Run, the annual Mr. GQ Contest, the Arthritis Foundation's Book Sale, and many more volunteer activities. Alpha Omicron Pi also works to foster a feeling of sisterhood amongst its members, aid in their academic and leadership endeavors, and positively affect the entire QU community as well as the Quincy area.

Circle K members can volunteer to serve the community. The club works on campus and in the surrounding area to help improve people's lives. Circle K International is part of the Kiwanis family, a network of clubs dedicated to helping others. We raise money for SP/IDD (Iodine Deficiency Disorder) research. This year QU's club added to the fight against IDD with donations from activities such as a walk-a-thon, a dance, and trick-or-treating for UNICEF. On campus we host the Food Drive and other service projects. Wednesday nights members "dedicate themselves to the realization of human potential."

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Have you ever been interested in blowing up laboratories? The American Chemical Society is an organization where you can find the next best thing. It is open to all students interested in chemistry and meetings are held once a month. At meetings, other than the business for the day, we get the opportunity to witness some fascinating demonstrations of chemistry at its best. From color changing solutions to spontaneous combustion and deafening explosions, meetings are full of surprises. YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

PLAY SYNOPSIS

"You Can't Take it with You" written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman is set in the Depression-Era 1930's. It gives the audience a chance to look at the world from a perspective centered on personal happiness rather than public success. Pomp and prominence meets eccentric and lovable in this wacky play.

Mr. Anthony Kirby falls in love with Alice Sycamor the granddaughter of Martin Vanderhof, a man who doesn't believe in work or income taxes. The delightful courtship of Alica and Tony runs into an iceberg big enough to sink the Titanic when the two families from completely different worlds finally meet.

CAMPUS LIFE

College life is much more than papers and exams. Extra-curricular events sponsored by several campus organizations, visits from prominent members of society, and awareness talks provide multiple opportunities for students to make a positive impact on the campus life and each other. The year 2000 at Quincy University continued the tradition of commitment and contribution to the community.

Hawk Wild, sponsored by SPB, presents an opportunity for students to get together, be active, and have a good time. Events range from keg races to the Titanic slide. Big White won the Hawk Wild Challenge. Their name will live on with all other Hawk Wild winners on the Hawk Wild Trophy. ITK came in a close second.

LEGEND OF THE HAWK

Like the silent approach of his high-flying namesake, the origins of the Quincy University Hawk are shrouded in mystery. Their German settlers (of Quincy), among them the founders of Quincy University, shunned the lowlands favored by the earlier visitors, and followed the hawk to the towering bluff and rolling prairie sites. Like the hawk, they were proud, independent, and quick to learn what was needed to survive in this rugged land.

The students of the 1920's must have recognized in the hawk traits that made the school successful in their athletic and academic pursuits. The hawk boasts exceptional vision, strength matched by agility, courage, and decisiveness.

Alone or in a hunting group, the hawk can travel great distances and engage in elaborate flight patterns. With tireless brown wings outstretched and white head gleaming in the sun, this mighty bird is a fitting symbol for the high achievement of the "Quincy University Hawks."

HONORED

Jane Smiley author of The All-True Travels and Adventures of Lidie Newton visited QU in the Fall of 1999. The Pulitzer Prize winner chose Quincy as the starting point for her book about Lidie Newton, set in the 1850's. the Lincoln-Douglas debates, the ambiguity in the area, and the "...hotbed of intellectual fervor..." gave Smiley a good place to begin the journey of Lidie Newton down the Mighty Mississippi.

Quincy native and Pulitzer Prize winning author James B. Stewart came to QU to promote his newest book, Blind Eye. The book concerns Michael Swango, who was also raised in Quincy. Swango attended Quincy College, and double majored in biology and chemistry. Unfortunately, somewhere along the way this golden boy went bad. The book covers the suspicious poisoning and deaths of Swango's co-workers that span the globe.

Dr. John Lucas, official lecturer of the International Olympic Committee visited QU. He reviewed the history of the modern Olympic Games, the significance of the flag, and the goals for the founder of the modern games, Baron Pierre de Coubertin. The five rings of the Olympic Flag stand for Europe, Africa, Asia, the Americas, and Oceania. The flag was to show that "all of humanity was interlocked in brotherhood." Lucas was honored with the gold Olympic Order in 1996.

GUESTS

President Bill Clinton visited Quincy on Feb. 4, 2000. The visit was important to Quincy, which has only hosted four sitting presidents in the last 200 years. Clinton spoke of the growth of Quincy and how he'd like to see other cities experience the same kind of economic boom. After his speech, Clinton donned a QU cap and shook hands with people in the crowd.

Governor George Ryan and his wife visited Quincy University on Dec. 14, 1999. Ryan presented a $500,000 check to QU as part of the Illinois FIRST grant program. The money will go to help fund the Goal 2000 Health and Fitness Center. Ryan awarded nearly $100 million to the west central Illinois area.

On April 30, 2000 Bishop George Lucas visited Quincy University. Lucas participated in mass, which served as a first communion ceremony for the inductees. Lucas welcomed five RCIA candidates into the Catholic Faith. The five new members of the Quincy University Catholic faith were Rob Montgomery, Jaimie Friye, Jen Lashly, Brad Culpepper, and Denise Scott. The initiation was orchestrated by the Office of Campus Ministry.

H.O.P.E. organized the gift giving tree for Christmas. The organization chose a needy family to sponsor over the Christmas holiday and appealed to QU students to help the family out. Presents ranged from bleach and cocoa to toy trucks and shoes. The event helped raise awareness on campus of the needy and coincided with the Circle K food drive, which also helps the needy.

Alpha Omicron Pi held its second annual Mr. GQ contest on January 22, 2000. Eleven contestants participated in the all-male pageant, proceeds from went to the national sorority's Capital Campaign in arthritis research.

In front of an enthusiastic crowd, contestants were put to the test in categories such as Swimwear, Talent, and Formal Wear. The competitor's styles ranged from the silly to the serious for the talent portion of the evening.

Throughout the initial rounds, co-hosts Randi Ramsey and Bethany Nannen encouraged the audience to vote for their favorite Mr. GQ.

A three-way tie occurred between George Stolar, Gabe Sesmas, and Adam Ubowski.

Finally, Ubowski was announced as Quincy University's new Mr. GQ.

COMMENCEMENT

Don't confuse your self-worth with your net worth. There is nothing wrong with becoming rich, but it should not be one of your main goals. Do your job - financial rewards will follow. Share what you have. Giving money and time to organizations or charities that reflect your values will increase your sense of wealth. As Winston Churchill once said, "We make a living of what we get and we make a life by what we give."

-Frank Kabbes '54, Commencement 2000 speaker
